1. [REDACTED] Eugene Kinnaly, Administrative Assistant to Speaker John McCormack, called to inquire why the Agency had not promoted [REDACTED] about whom the Speaker's office has previously contacted us. Mr. Kinnaly feels that since she is approaching retirement age, the subject of what he considers to be a long-overdue promotion becomes increasingly important to her. I told Mr. Kinnaly it was my impression that we had done everything we could for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] when he had contacted us about her staying in [REDACTED] some months ago, but that I would look into the situation and be in touch with him.

2. [REDACTED] Miss Pat Patterson, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and requested an item from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] having to do with North Korean trade and foreign assistance. I told Miss Patterson I would check on this and be in touch with her.

Mr. Simmons, State Department, called to say they were preparing some material for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and desired our approval to send to the Committee an Intelligence Memorandum, ER IM 68-10, on the subject of North Korea's Foreign Trade. I talked with Mr. Simmons and learned that this item had not been specifically requested by the Committee, but was being considered by the Department in response to a general request from the Committee for information on this subject. I told Mr. Simmons that we would prefer that this item not be included in material furnished to the Foreign Relations Committee in the absence of a specific request.

3. [REDACTED] Handcarried to Miss Eleanor Pelton, in the office of Representative William E. Minshall, a response to a letter from the Congressman asking that we contact a constituent. [REDACTED] STATINTL
